KUCHING: The Sarawak Entertainers Night will be held at Crown Square on Nov 13 starting at 8pm.

Participating bands include HEVANCE, an Independent Iban rock band from Bintulu.

Formed in 2001, the band became popular with their first single Semapai Ngenang recorded in 2008 but what really boosts their popularity was the second single Aku Nemu which was in their mini studio album or EP titled Sada Ati recorded in 2010.

The song topped the charts in most of the local radio stations in Sarawak and was nominated for 3 categories in Anugerah Carta Borneo ERA 2010/11 organized by ERA FM.

Another performer is DJ Chaca Ferozha, a popular figure in the dj industry. Hard work and determination are the two key elements that pushed DjChaca to the top of the industry where she has rightfully claimed her spot. She started her dj-ing career in the last quarter of 2010 at the age of 19 with Electro being her first chosen genre music.

Also performing is Street Geekz which was established in 2011. Originally a small-time modern dance crew of a UNIMAS college's cultural club, Street Geekz progressed quickly and stormed into Kuching dance scene.

The group specializes in urban & hip hop choreography. Street Geekz is also active on YouTube, producing HQ conceptual dance choreography videos. Street Geekz's ultimate goal is to instill dance as a lifestyle.
